What is Arthurs Shed?

Arthur's Shed is a purpose-built studio set in the beautiful grounds of the Arthur Rank Hospice. Sessions are open to the public, you do not need to have a connection with the Charity to attend. Sessions are free of charge, although a suggested donation of £5 is welcomed to cover the cost of materials. Sessions can be booked by emailing Arthurs.shed@arhc.org.uk or calling 01223 675777. Sessions must be booked in advance.

What's on?

December is a little quiet for us but we usually have a wide range of sessions! Contact us to be added to our mailing list. We re-open in February 2025.

Astronomy: Learn all about the sun, moon and stars and build your very own sun dial!

Clay Work: Design and decorate small, air-dried clay sculptures

Still Life Drawing: Come along and enjoy Still Life Drawing and find your hidden talent!

Laughing: Combine laughter exercises and deep breathing to lift your mood and energy (no acrobatics required)

Meditation: Relax and unwind with guided meditation

Henna: Learn about the origins of henna and have a go yourself!

Accessibility

Arthurs Shed is on the ground floor and wheelchair accessible. We have disabled toilets in the main building and disabled parking on site if needed. We welcome support workers or carers. Sessions are informal and you are welcome to step out if you need to, we have quiet spaces available for you to use if you need them. If you would like to view the space or route beforehand please let us know. Please contact us on 01223 675871 if you have any specific needs or queries relating to accessibility.

Getting to us

Please park at the Babraham Park&Ride unless you need to use on-site car parking for a health condition, this car park is free to use. If arriving by bus you will see a sign towards a footpath which will take you to the Hospice site. If cycling you are welcome to park your bike on the racks at the front of the building. If on foot we recommend you use the path along Babraham Road and the footpath.
